National Let It Go Day

For those of you who keep track of these “National Days,” the day I am writing this, Tuesday, June 23, 2026, is National Let It Go Day. Even though it has passed, read on, because every day should be “let it go” day. “Everyone has probably experienced those different sets of nagging regrets and grudges that tug at their souls for weeks, months or even years. It doesn’t even matter how much time has passed after the people, jobs or situations which once made them important ceased to be part of their life. It can still be so very hard to let go of these things from the past. That is exactly what National Let It Go Day is all about!

A national day when people all over the world can be intentional about taking the brave step to cast away all those hang-ups from a previous chapter in life and start fresh.”

From a Biblical standpoint, there are many things that we need to let go of. Philippians 3.13, “Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.” Paul was referring not looking back at anything that might distract us from a focus on “the heavenward call of God in Christ.” The word forgetting means “dismissing from the mind or paying no attention to.” It carries the idea of ceasing to dwell on something. This is Paul’s way of saying, “Don’t look back! Stop dwelling on the past. Don’t let anything behind you interfere with your present progress or future efforts.”

There are many things we need to let go. We need to let go of our past failures and sins. Once they have been confessed to God, they are forgiven and removed from God’s remembrance. Hebrews 8.12, “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.” They need to be removed from our remembrance also. We may still be dealing with the consequences of those sins and failures. But we must let go of them.

We need to let go of past decisions, especially poor ones. We can’t relive the past. We can’t make those decisions over again. We can learn from them for the future. It is what it is, and we need to trust God in our present situation and rejoice in it. 1 Thessalonians 5.18, “Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.”

We need to let go of our bitterness and unforgiveness and forgive as we have been forgiven. Ephesians 4.31, “Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice.” Christ followers should never say, “I will never forgive...” What if God said that to us?

We need to let go of our past life of sin and follow Christ-like examples of righteousness. James 1.21, “Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.”

We need to let go of our worry and concerns and in trust give them to God to help us. Matthew 6.25, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear.”

So let us, let go of these things! “Let it go, let it go, turn away and slam the door.” – Elsa from Frozen.
